JANELLE BOTHA EN DIE WANDELAARS

RAW. AUTHENTIC. UNAPOLOGETICALLY NAMIBIAN.

About the Band

Our Story

We weren't formed, we were forged. 2023 Originally created for the Camp Rock Festival, our sound has evolved into something uniquely Namibian.

Our Sound

A powerful, soulful take on Afrikaans rock. We challenge perceptions by blending traditional Afrikaans music with contemporary rock energy.

Our Mission

To showcase the rich, emotive qualities of Afrikaans music and its connection to contemporary rock genres.

🎵 Musical Identity

Raw. Authentic. Unapologetically Namibian.

🌍 Cultural Roots

Deeply connected to Namibian landscapes and heritage.

The Wandelaars

Janelle Botha

Lead Vocals

The dynamic frontwoman and driving force behind the band. Janelle brings powerful vocals and authentic emotion to every performance.

"Challenging perceptions of Afrikaans music with a fresh, rock-infused perspective"

Tyron

Guitar

The engine room of the band. His riffs are the foundation of our sound—a masterclass in rock guitar from one of Namibia's finest.

"Creating the melodic landscape that defines our sound"

Kyle

Bass

The groove and foundation of the band. His bass provides the unshakable rhythm that defines our sound and keeps the audience moving.

"The heartbeat that connects the rhythm to the melody"

Wayne

Drums

The relentless heartbeat of the band. A powerhouse of rhythm and raw energy that drives our performances and captivates audiences.

"Setting the pace and intensity of every performance"
